Qualifications

Diploma in Law (2002)

Renée joined TLlawyers in 2005.

Main areas of practice

Renée specialises in statutory liability claims and Section 151Z recoveries, acting solely for insurers. Special skills include the case management of matters relating to complex liability and quantum issues and assessing economic loss.

Background

Prior to joining TLlawyers early in 2005, Renée for Sydney firms, Stewart Cuddy & Mockler, from 1997, originally working as a law clerk and Blake Dawson Waldron, from 2002, where she practiced solely in managing workers compensation, compulsory third party and dust disease claims.

Experience

Renée has over 10 years experience in management and resolution of statutory liability and dust diseases claims, representing employers, statutory bodies and insurers. Renée is very pro-active in achieving cost effective settlements for insures. She has experience at Court of Appeal, Dust Disease Tribunal and Workers Compensation Commission and also as an Advocate before mediations and the Claims Assessment and Resolution Service.

Renée provides in-house training and advice regarding Uniform Civil Procedures and practice and procedure in Sydney jurisdictions.
