Section 87U Economic Loss

From May 2011

In the assessment of economic loss, a court must disregard the amount by which the plaintiff's gross weekly earnings exceed twice the average weekly earnings of all employees (in Australia) as published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics below:

Period	Average weekly Earnings (Aust) $	Period	Average weekly Earnings (Aust) $
May 11	$1015.20	May 10	$977.10
