

Trade Practices Act 1974

Section 87M Non economic loss damages

From October 2009

% of most extreme case	Damages $	% of most extreme case	Damages $	% of most extreme case	Damages $
100	294940	71	209410	42	123870
99	291990	70	206460	41	120930
98	289040	69	203510	40	117980
97	286090	68	200560	39	115030
96	283140	67	197610	38	112080
95	280190	66	194660	37	109130
94	277240	65	191710	36	106180
93	274290	64	188760	35	103230
92	271340	63	185810	34	100280
91	268400	62	182860	33	97330
90	265450	61	179910	32	88480
89	262500	60	176960	31	76680
88	259550	59	174010	30	67840
87	256600	58	171070	29	53090
86	253650	57	168120	28	41290
85	250700	56	165170	27	29490
84	247750	55	162220	26	23600
83	244800	54	159270	25	19170
82	241850	53	156320	24	16220
81	238900	52	153370	23	14750
80	235950	51	150420	22	13270
79	233000	50	147470	21	11800
78	230050	49	144520	20	10320
77	227100	48	141570	19	8850
76	224150	47	138620	18	7370
75	221210	46	135670	17	5900
74	218260	45	132720	16	4420
73	215310	44	129770	15	2950
72	212360	43	126820	14-1	nil

Section 87U Economic Loss

From May 2009

In the assessment of economic loss, a court must disregard the amount by which the plaintiff's gross weekly earnings exceed twice the average weekly earnings of all employees (in Australia) as published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics below:

Period	Average weekly Earnings (Aust) $	Period	Average weekly Earnings (Aust) $
May 09	$918.80	May 08	$885.00